AL SHERMAN: THREE YEARS, THREE TITLES

AL SHERMAN

4th YEAR

Brooklyn College

Scarsdale, N. Y.

COACH: Three NFL eastern division titles in three years! Thirty-three victories and only eight losses! A winning percentage of .804! This is the brilliant record compiled by Giant head coach Al Sherman since taking over the reins from Jim Lee Howell. For his efforts, Sherman was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1961, his rookie season at the helm, and again in 1962, making him the only coach in league history ever to earn this designation in back-to-back years. Al was in the running again last year, too, when he guided the Maramen to an 11-3 mark and their third straight divisional championship. Few coaches have ever enjoyed such uninterrupted success. Sherman assumed command in 1961 and posted a 10-3-1 record, good enough for the eastern title. He followed this with 12-2 in 1962 for another crown. At 41 years of age, Allie is one of the youngest head coaches in the NFL—and also one of the most capable. Al's career with the Giants spans two periods. He was backfield coach under the late Steve Owen from 1949 to 1953, and one of his first jobs was the conversion of a rookie named Charlie Conerly from a single wing tailback to a T-formation quarterback. When Owen left in 1954 and Howell took over, Sherman moved to the Canadian League as head coach at Winnipeg (1954-55-56) and made the title playoffs three straight years. He returned to the NFL as a personnel scout for the Giants in 1957, and served in that capacity until replacing Vinnie Lombardi as offense coach in 1959. When Howell retired after 1960, the Giants didn't have to look far for his successor. Sherman coached in the Senior Bowl five times (1951-52-53-59-60) and in 1961, 1962 and 1963 he headed the Eastern eleven in the Pro Bowl classic. Prior to entering the pro ranks, Al coached at St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia (1946-47), and later helped install the T at Gettysburg College (1953). In 1948, as player coach, he led the Paterson (N. J.) Panthers to the American Association title.

PRO: Sherman was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in the war year of 1943, and played with Greasy Neale's club for five seasons, until 1947. Al was never more than a second-string quarterback behind Roy Zimmerman, but coach Neale credited the little lefthander with having "one of the sharpest football minds in the business." Sherman was originally brought to Philadelphia to help install the T formation.

SCHOOL: Attended Boys' High in New York City (1935-38) and then played four years of football under Lou Oshins at Brooklyn College. Biggest thrill came the day underdog Brooklyn rallied to whip City College, 28-21. Al passed for two touchdowns and scored the other two. In 1942, Sherman's junior year, Oshins installed the then-new T formation and put Al at quarterback. The lefthanded kid was so adept at running the Brooklyn T that Philadelphia pro scouts immediately grabbed him to operate the Eagles' T.

PERSONAL: Sherman was born on February 10, 1923. He has one sister, Miriam. Majored in psychology and economics at Brooklyn College and was graduated Cum Laude in 1942. He and his pretty wife Joan have three children, Randy, Lori and Robin. "Randy is interested in sports," smiles Al, "but somehow he always wants to be the coach instead of a player." Sherman has no particular hobby outside of looking at football films after the rest of the clan has retired for the night. "I never get tired of football," he admits.

GIANTS' ASSISTANT COACHES

LINE COACH

ED KOLMAN

12th YEAR

Temple, Bears, Giants

New Hyde Park, L.I.

COACH: Kolman has been with the Giants since 1950, but missed three years (1957-59) when he left the coaching lines to enter private business. He returned to his first love in 1960 and has been instrumental in the winning of three NFL eastern division titles since then. In his early days with New York, Ed helped develop such all-pro linemen as Rosey Brown, Ray Wietecha and Jack Stroud. His more recent proteges have been all-pro guard Darrell Dess, center Greg Larson and guard Bookie Bolin.

PRO: A member of the powerhouse Chicago Bear teams of the early 1940s, Kolman played tackle alongside such greats as Lee Artoe and Jumbo Joe Stydahar. He took part in the Bears' ineffable 73-0 world championship win over Washington in 1940, saw full-time duty in the 37-9 win over the Giants for the 1941 title, and played in the 14-6 loss to Washington the following year. He returned to the Bears in 1946 after a military hitch and played in the 24-14 world title victory over the Giants at the Polo Grounds that year. A leg injury sidelined Kolman during 1948 and he was traded to New York, where he ended his playing career in 1949.

SCHOOL: Played football at Stuyvesant and Boy's High in New York and was All-Met at latter. Played varsity ball at Temple U. from 1937-1939, and twice won All-American honors.

PERSONAL: Born October 21, 1917, in Greenpoint section of Brooklyn. He and his wife Adele have two children, Edwina and Richard. Ed is a music lover who plays the violin; he had his own band in college. He works for the Austin-Nichols Company in the off-season in the New York area but also puts in a lot of time huddling with head coach Al Sherman. He served as a Navy lieutenant for three and a half years in World War II, and won the Bronze Star.

END COACH

KEN KAVANAUGH

10th YEAR

LSU, Chicago Bears

Philadelphia, Pa.

COACH: Kavanaugh joined the Giants in 1955 as an offensive end coach and has held that job ever since. The former Chicago Bear great works closely with head coach Al Sherman on end play and on the offensive passing game. Ken also acts as Sherman's press box spotter during the games, relaying information down to the sideline via telephone and Polaroid pictures. He served as an assistant coach at Villanova in 1954.

PRO: Ken was one of the most famous ends in NFL history as a member of the great Bear teams of the pre-war era. He played on the championship Chicago elevens of 1940, 1941, and 1946. He is the second highest scorer in Bear annals with 330 points and the top Chicago touchdown-maker with 55. His remarkable receiving record shows one touchdown for every three passes caught. Ken is a member of the Chicago Bears' Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

SCHOOL: An All-American end at LSU from 1936-40, Ken also starred on the LSU baseball team, and made good as a minor leaguer before joining the Bears. His exploits at LSU won Ken a niche in the National Foundation Football Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL: Born November 23, 1916, at Little Rock, Ark. Operates ranch in California, and runs lumber business in Philadelphia. Married, with two children. Served with Air Force in World War II as pilot. Rose to rank of captain; flew 30 missions; earned Air Medal and the Distinguished Flying Cross.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD COACH

HARRY WRIGHT

1st YEAR

Notre Dame

Great Neck, N. Y.

COACH: Although the 1964 season marks Harry Wright's first venture into professional ball, the former Notre Dame star brings a wealth of coaching experience and football acumen to coach Allie Sherman's staff. Harry started his coaching career by turning out championship teams at Aquinas Institute in Rochester, N. Y. Then he coached at the U. of Portland and later moved to the U. of Georgia, serving as offensive backfield coach under Wally Butts from 1951-58. His last assignment before joining the Giants was at the Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy, where his teams won 32 and lost 23 from 1958-63.

SCHOOL: Wright played football at Notre Dame in 1940-41-42. He started as a quarterback in his sophomore year but was switched to running guard by Frank Leahy in 1941. As a lineman, he continued to call signals for the Irish. He also starred in baseball and gymnastics at South Bend, winning three major letters. He was a durable 60-minute player who earned the name "Harry the Horse" because of his stamina.

PERSONAL: Harry was born on October 4, 1919, in New York City and has been a native son ever since. He attended Chaminade High in Mineola, L.I., before going to Notre Dame, and presently lives in Great Neck, L.I., with his wife, the former Claire Parcel, and their five children (four boys). In the off-season, Harry is employed by a corrugated box firm. During World War II, he served as a 1st Lieutenant in the Marine Corps. He is of Scotch-English descent.

DEFENSIVE COACH

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

3rd YEAR

Arnold College

Stamford, Conn.

COACH: Andy served as defensive-player coach of the Giants during 1962 and 1963 but has since retired as an active participant and henceforth will devote his full time and energy to sideline coaching. Robustelli brings a varied and solid football background to Allie Sherman's staff. As a player he was acknowledged as one of the smartest defensive ends in the game; as a player-coach, he demonstrated his dual capabilities in helping the Giants win back-to-back eastern division titles.

PRO: Robustelli was the No. 19 draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played with two Ram championship squads on the West Coast. In 1956 he was traded to the Giants for a future draft choice and immediately sparked the Maramen to a world championship. In his eight years as defensive leader of the Giants, they won six NFL eastern crowns. Andy was a perennial All-Pro selection most of his career and played in seven Pro Bowl games.

SCHOOL: Andy was named to the Little All-American team for three straight years (1948-50) while playing for now-defunct Arnold College in Connecticut. He also was an All-New England selection in 1949-50. In addition to his football, Andy won three baseball letters at Arnold.

PERSONAL: Born on December 6, 1926, Andy is married to the former Jean Dora and they have eight children. He owns a sports store in Stamford, Conn., but spends most of his time in other Robustelli enterprises. Andy, a popular after-dinner speaker, served two and a half years with the Navy in World War II and saw action in the South Pacific.

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE PLAYER-COACH

JIMMY PATTON

3rd YEAR

U. of Mississippi

Belzoni, Miss.

As chief lieutenant to defensive coach Andy Robustelli, all-pro Jimmy Patton runs the Giants' pass defense secondary. Specifically, Patton is charged with drilling the halfbacks and safetymen in the defenses devised by head coach Al Sherman and Robustelli. Anti-pass warfare has been Patton's speciality ever since he left the U. of Mississippi campus in 1955 to join the Giants. Jim was a great offensive player at Ole Miss but, outside of running back punts and kickoffs earlier in his pro career, the Maramen have used him exclusively as a safetymen. And the 31-year-old ballhawk has few peers at that position. In 1958 he led the league in pass interceptions with nine, and in 1961 he tied for second behind New York's Dick Lynch with eight. Last season (1963) he grabbed off six enemy aerals. Jim's "book" on outstanding receivers in the N.F.L. is exhaustive, and is a valuable guide to other Giant defensive backs. (For more on Jim Patton, see Page 33.)

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

JIM LEE HOWELL

Englewood, N. J.

In a quarter of a century with the Football Giants, towering, affable and efficient Jim Lee Howell has filled a variety of posts—player, assistant coach, head coach and now director of player personnel. Jim Lee joined the Giants in 1937 after a brilliant athletic career at the U. of Arkansas (he was a member of the U.S. Olympic basketball team) and was among the fine crop of rookies who led the Maramen to the world title in 1938 and eastern crowns in 1939 and 1941. He was a regular two-way Giant end for a total of nine years, 1937-42 and 1946-48, his career being interrupted for a wartime hitch with the Marines in the South Pacific. Upon the completion of his playing days, Howell served as end coach under Steve Owen from 1949-53. During the same period, he was head coach at Wagner College. He moved into the No. 1 job when Owen departed in 1953. Over a seven-year period with Howell as head coach, New York won three divisional titles (1956-58-59) and one world championship (1956). Three of Howell's assistants are now head coaches in their own right—Al Sherman (Giants), Tom Landry (Dallas) and Vin Lombardi (Green Bay). And one of his former players, Harland Svare, is now head coach of the Los Angeles Rams. When Jim Lee retired from the coaching lines after the 1960 campaign, he immediately was named director of player personnel for the Giants. In this job, he supervises the club's far-flung and ever-expanding recruiting system, works in close liaison with the scouts and correlates the voluminous material compiled on college players from every section of the land. Thanks to his years in the game and a wealth of experience, Jim Lee is ideally suited for such a position. He is very popular with the college coaches and athletic directors with whom he must work to keep the talent flowing in New York's direction each year. Howell still owns a large farm in his home town of Lonoke, Ark., but spends most of his time in Englewood, N. J., with his wife Sue and their four children, Tim, Mark, Susan and newcomer James Lee, Jr.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT COACH AND SCOUT

EMLÉN TUNNELL

2nd YEAR

University of Iowa

Philadelphia, Pa.

In his dual capacity as special assistant coach and chief scout, 39-year-old Emlen Tunnell is a valuable and useful member of coach Al Sherman's staff. Tunnell's coaching duties include special projects such as working with the kickoff and punt return specialists, the defensive backs and offensive receivers. Em is Sherman's chief troubleshooter in any area where a player needs individual coaching. As a scout, the former All-Pro defensive back watches the Giants' upcoming opponent every Sunday during the NFL season, and then hits the college trail looking for new material during the winter and spring months. Tunnell adds a wealth of pro experience to the Giants' staff. He played with the Giants as a safetyman for 11 years (1948-58) and then spent three more seasons with Green Bay (1959-61) before retiring from active competition. Em was one of the true iron men of the NFL as a player. With the Giants he set a consecutive game record of 126, and he ran that string to 158 with Green Bay. This figure stood as a league record until the end of the 1963 season when San Francisco's Leo Nomellini moved into first place with 174 straight games. Tunnell stands second on the list of most NFL games ever played with 167. Ex-Pittsburgh quarterback Bobby Layne holds the record at 175 games. Em still holds three NFL records—most career interceptions (79), most career punt returns (258) and most punt returns in a single season (38). In his playing days, Em was a member of the celebrated "umbrella defense" but he also was a fellow who piled up lots of yards for New York. In 1952 he gained 924 yards on interceptions and kick returns; the following year he totaled 819 yards the same way. They called him "the offense on defense." Tunnell was born in Bryn Mawr, Pa., but grew up and went to school in Radnor, Pa. He entered Toledo University in 1942 but left shortly thereafter for a three-year Coast Guard wartime hitch that took him all over the South Pacific battle area and won him three invasion stars. After the war he enrolled at Iowa and became a fine all-around football performer. In 1948 he signed with the Giants as a free agent and began a pro career that established him as one of the game's top stars. For 11 seasons he was a ballhawking safetyman, a vicious head-on tackler, an aggressive, determined competitor who became the darling of New York fans. Em and his wife Patricia make their home in Philadelphia the year 'round.

KICKING COACH

KEN STRONG

N.Y.U., Giants

Bayside, L. I.

3rd YEAR

Ken Strong, one of the truly great names in New York City football, is back for his third year as a member of coach Al Sherman's staff. In 1961, the former New York University All-American and one-time pro Giant star was hired as a special kicking coach and was put in charge of the project to convert punting ace Don Chandler into a placekicker to replace the departed Pat Summerall. That Strong did his tutoring job well is evidenced by Chandler's record—19 field goals in 28 attempts (best percentage in the NFL), 47 of 48 extra points, a one-season Giant scoring record of 104 points and another club record of four field goals in a single game, a feat he accomplished twice during 1962. Last season Chandler continued his amazing kicking as he accounted for 106 points to win the NFL scoring title. Ken Strong is indeed well qualified for the job of kicking coach. In an eight-year career with the Giants (1933-35, 1939 and 1944-47) he established himself as one of the game's greatest kickers. He also was a fine halfback, a good runner and blocker, but kicking the football was easily his forte. His punting average over the years was always near 45 yards; he booted 147 extra points, 67 in a row over one span; he kicked 36 field goals, and his talented toe was instrumental in piling up a career total of 351 points, second only to Frank Gifford's 418 in alltime Giant scoring. In 1934, Ken personally accounted for 72 points, quite a feat in an era of low scoring defensive games. Strong starred in baseball and football at N.Y.U. from 1926-28, winning All-American grid honors in his senior year when he led the nation's collegiate scorers with 162 points. After graduating, he joined the professional Staten Island Stapletons but in 1933 Tim Mara persuaded him to sign with the Giants. For the next three seasons he was a bulwark of Steve Owen's great clubs, and was a standout performer in the memorable "sneaker game" of 1934 against the Bears. After that, Ken's career led him to the N. Y. Yankees and the Jersey City Giants. He returned to the Maramen in 1939 but a broken back put him on the sidelines. In the war years, the Giants re-hired Strong as a kicking specialist, and he played from 1944 through 1947. Still trim and vigorous, Ken now lives with his family in Bayside, L. I. He works for the Mason-Burrows Wholesale Liquor House and is active in the affairs of the Touchdown Club of New York. Ken is a member of not one—but three—Halls of Fame, the Helms Foundation college and professional Halls of Fame and the National Football Hall of Fame.

VETERAN PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

BOB ANDERSON

Halfback

2nd YEAR

Army

26 210 6-2

New York City

PRO: Anderson was the Giants' No. 9 draft choice for the 1960 season after a brilliant career at West Point. But first he had to serve three years on active duty with the Army, finally joining the Maramen for the 1963 season. Bob was retained on the inactive squad at the start of the campaign but was elevated to active status midway in he season and saw brief service at halfback.

SCHOOL: Anderson was a top halfback at Army for three varsity seasons, winning All-American honors in 1957 and 1958. He earned six varsity letters, three each in football and track, and was regarded as one of the finest all-around athletes in the academy's history. The biggest game of his career was against Utah in October, 1597, when he ran for three touchdowns, passed for another and gained 224 yards rushing. He also starred in the Cadets' 22-6 victory over Navy in 1958.

PERSONAL: Born on March 31, 1938, in Elizabeth, N. J., but his family moved to Cocoa Beach Fla., before he entered high school. Bob is still single. After receiving his commission at West Point, he served for two years as a paratrooper with the 101st Airborne Division at Fort Campbell, Ky. He also graduated from the Army's rugged Ranger School. Bob now makes New York City his home during the off-season.

ERICH BARNES

Halfback

7th YEAR

Purdue University

29 198 6-3

Elkhart, Ind.

PRO: Barnes was drafted No. 4 by the Chicago Bears in 1958, and came to the Giants at the start of the 1961 season as part of a three-team deal that sent Giant defensive star Lindon Crow to Los Angeles and Ram quarterback Billy Wade to Chicago. In three years with the Bears, Erich intercepted only nine passes for 157 yards. As a Giant he has done much better. His three-season total shows 16 interceptions for 256 yards. In 1961, his first years as a

Ken Byers

Don Chandler

John Counts

Bob Crespino

Giant, Erich grabbed seven enemy aerals and returned them 195 yards. One of these was the record-tying 102-yard interception jaunt against Dallas in the Cotton Bowl. Barnes is an ideal corner back-big, fast, rugged and a vicious tackler. Has appeared in three Pro Bowl games.

SCHOOL: Barnes was a standout all-around performer at Purdue University. He lettered two seasons as a halfback and then played one year at offensive end. He and quarterback Len Dawson collaborated on the longest Purdue pass-run play, 95 yards, against Northwestern in 1956. Erich also was a star quarter-miler on the Boilermaker track team and a regular in basketball.

PERSONAL: Born on July 4, 1935, in Elkhart, Ind., where he still lives. He is married to the former Doris Williams and they have two daughters. Erich says his biggest thrill as a pro, outside of his 102-yard touchdown run, was the day coach Al Sherman put him in for one offensive play against the Philadelphia Eagles and he caught a 62-yard touchdown pass from Y. A. Tittle. In the off-season Erich is a school teacher in Elkhart. He spent time in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve.

TREVA (BOOKIE) BOLIN

Guard

3rd Year

U. of Mississippi

24 235 6-2

Okolona, Miss.

PRO: Bolin was drafted on the fifth round as a "future" for the 1963 season but was signed by the Giants in 1962 when the NCAA ruled him ineligible for further collegiate competition. As a rookie, he saw part-time duty at guard and was a leading member of the "suicide squads"—the kickoff and punting teams. In 1963, Bookie moved into starting status with the Giants and was a vital cog in the offensive line that took New York to a third straight NFL eastern crown.

SCHOOL: . Bookie was a regular guard for Ole Miss in his sophomore and junior seasons. He won three varsity letters, two in football, and played in the 1961 Sugar Bowl and the 1962 Cotton Bowl. He won acclaim as one of the top linemen ever developed at Mississippi.

Darrell Dess

Ed Dove

Frank Gifford

Glynn Griffing

PERSONAL: Born on June 17, 1940, in Hamilton, Ala., he is married to the former Joyce Gentry. A top student at Ole Miss, Bolin was named to the Scholastic All-American team and the Southeastern Conference All-Scholastic squad. He hopes to pursue a career in coaching when his playing days are over. His hobbies include hunting and fishing.

ROOSEVELT BROWN

Tackle

12th Year

Morgan State

32 260 6-3

Teaneck, N. J.

PRO: Drafted No. 27 in 1953 in what is generally regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Was named to the Pro Bowl game for seven years in a row, and is a perennial All Pro selection at tackle. In 1956, when Giants won the world title, Rosey was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Ranks with top offensive tackles in league history. Big, fast, and agile. Fine downfield blocker. Is valuable member of Giants' kickoff teams, and usually makes the tackle. Also used to reinforce forward wall on goal-line stands.

SCHOOL: Two-time member of Negro All-American eleven. Co-captained the Morgan State team for two years. Played in Polo Grounds against Wilberforce in the Negro grid classic. Won four major letters in football, two in wrestling and one in baseball. Two-time captain of the Morgan State mat squad. Won several heavyweight titles during collegiate career.

PERSONAL: Born on October 20, 1932. Married to the former Thelma Curreston and lives in Teaneck, N. J., where wife teaches school. Is employed on the sales force of the P. Ballantine and Sons Company in New Jersey area. Rosey was born in Charlottesville, Va., and attended Jefferson High School there. Went out for football because, "My high school coach thought I was too big to be playing trombone in the school band." Rosey's boyhood grid idol was Marion Motley, famed Cleveland Brown's fullback.

Al Gursky

Louis Guy

Jerry Hillebrand

Lane Howell

KEN BYERSGuard*3rd Year*U. of Cincinnati*24 240 6-1*Little Neck, L. I.

PRO: Drafted No. 7 by the Giants after impressing scouts with his size, speed and agility. Was signed by Jim Lee Howell, director of personnel for the Giants. As a rookie, the husky Byers filled in occasionally for Andy Robustelli at defensive end and also saw service on the various kickoff and punting units. In 1963, his second year, Ken was switched exclusively to offense where he shared right guard duties with Bookie Bolin.

SCHOOL: Co-captain of the U. of Cincinnati eleven in 1961 winning All-American honorable mention. Was named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team in 1960 and 1961, and was twice voted conference Lineman of the Week as a senior. Averaged 48 minutes a game for the Bearcats. Against Marquette in 1960, Ken recovered two fumbles, knocked down five passes and made a dozen unassisted tackles.

PERSONAL: Byers was born on April 6, 1940, in Logan, O. He is married to the former Eileen Schneider, and they have a small daughter, Juli Ann, 4. Ken majored in English at Cincinnati and hopes someday to become a lawyer. Right now he spends his off-season time as an insurance representative in the New York area. His hobby is water skiing.

DON CHANDLERPunter, Place-kicker*9th Year*Florida University*30 205 6-2*Tulsa, Okla.

PRO: Chandler was the Giants' fifth draft choice in 1956, after a brilliant career at Florida, and was a vital cog in the club's drive to the NFL title that year. Don has spent most of his seven years as a punting specialist, averaging close to 45 yards per boot over that span, but in 1962 he also assumed the Giants' place-kicking duties and immediately set a club scoring record of 104 points by kicking 19 of 28 field goals and 47 of 48 extra points. The Giants won 12 games in 1962 and Chandler personally won four of them with his bullseye field goal kicking. In 1961, Babe accounted for 106 points with his golden toe to boost his club record, winning the NFL scoring title in the process. As a punter, Don won the NFL crown in 1957 with a 44.6 average and was second in 1958 and 1959 behind Yale Lary. During the 1961 pre-season schedule, he booted a ball 107 yards against the Dallas Cowboys in Albuquerque, N. M. He also has a 90-yarder against the Bears to his credit.

SCHOOL: Don led the nation's collegiate punters in 1955 while at Florida. He won major letters in football, basketball, baseball and track. He was an All-Southern Conference selection three times (1952-53-55) and saw duty at three positions—end, halfback and fullback. Played in the Junior Rose Bowl and the College All-Star game. Won conference high jump title with leap of 6-4. Prior to attending Florida, Don spent a year at Bacone Indian College in Muskogee, Okla.

PERSONAL: Born on September 5, 1934. Nicknamed "Babe." Married childhood sweetheart, former Pat Daniels, and they have three children, Kelle, Brett and Caron. Don owns a home in Tulsa, where he pursues his favorite hobbies: cattle, horses, fishing and golf. In the off-season he does public relations work in Tulsa. Don's father, Ben, and his brother, Dan, were top athletes in their day around Oklahoma. Chandler is of Scotch-Irish-Indian descent. Was honor student in college, earning B.S. degree in physical education.

JOHNNY COUNTS

Halfback

3rd Year

U. of Illinois

25 175 5-10

New Rochelle, N. Y.

PRO: An unknown, unheralded free agent from the semi-pro ranks in Connecticut, Counts became a full-fledged pro star in his rookie season of 1962. Used primarily as a kickoff return man,

Lou Kirouac

Greg Larson

John Lo Vetere

Dick Lynch

Johnny finished second in that category in the NFL with 26 for 784 yards and a 30.2 average. One of his returns was a 90-yard touchdown blast-off against Washington on the opening play of the game. In 1963, Johnny's season was interrupted by a hitch in the Navy, and he saw only sporadic duty as a kickoff return man. He finished the year on the inactive squad.

SCHOOL: Counts played offensive halfback for the University of Illinois in 1958 and 1959 and was named "Sophomore of the Year" in the Big Ten. Before leaving school for a fling at Canadian pro ball, he won varsity letters in football and track, where he was a 9.8 sprinter.

PERSONAL: Born on February 28, 1939, in Mt. Pleasant, N. Y., and now lives in New Rochelle. Johnny attended New Rochelle High where he was almost a legend in football and track. He ran the hundred in 9.8 as a schoolboy and the 220 in 21.0. His scholastic feats were well known to the Giants long before he even entered Illinois. His hobby is collecting popular records. He is married.

BOB CRESPINO

Flanker

4th Year

U. of Mississippi

26 225 6-4

Greenville, Miss.

PRO: Crespino was the No. 1 draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1961 after a great career at Ole Miss. He was used sparingly as a receiver by the Browns, however, and caught just six passes for 97 yards in three seasons. He was employed mainly on the special units by Cleveland. Bobby came to the Giants prior to the 1964 season in a straight player trade for veteran defensive tackle Dick Modzelewski. He can play either flanker or tight end.

SCHOOL: Bobby was an All-American halfback at Mississippi and set a Senior Bowl record with nine catches in 1960. He was injured in the 1961 College All Star game and never did get untracked as a rookie with the Browns. He ran the 220 at Ole Miss and also lettered in baseball. At Greenville, Miss., High, he was a state champ in the 100, 220 and 440-yard events.

PERSONAL: Crespino was born on January 11, 1938, in Duncan, Miss., but his family moved to Greenville shortly thereafter. He is married to the former Barbara Hardin of Macon, Miss.

DARRELL DESS

Guard

7th Year

N. Carolina State

29 235 6-0

New Castle, Pa.

PRO: Originally drafted No. 11 by the Washington Redskins, Dess was traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers at the start of the 1958 season. He was a regular offensive guard for the Steelers before being acquired by the Giants in 1959 in a trade for fullback C. R. Roberts. Dess played several years as an unheralded guard but in 1963 he made just about every All-Pro team and was elected to the Pro Bowl squad. Rated by line coach Ed Kolman as "one of the top three guards in pro football."

SCHOOL: Dess won three varsity football letters at North Carolina State. Was All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in senior year and starred in 1957 Blue-Gray game. Saw collegiate service as a center, guard and tackle. Won letter in wrestling, too.

PERSONAL: Born July 11, 1935. Is of German descent. Plans on teaching school when grid days are over. Is substitute teacher in off-season. Was wrestling star at Union Township H.S. in New Castle, Pa. Darrell was married in spring of 1964 to Carol Karner of Wampun, Pa.

EDDIE DOVE

Safetyman

6th Year

Colorado

27 185 6-1

Menlo Park, Calif.

PRO: Dove was the No. 3 draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 1959 and played for the West Coast team until traded to the Giants for a future draft pick early in the 1963 season. He saw part-time duty in the Giant secondary, intercepting two passes, and also returned 17 punts for 198 yards and three kickoffs for 56 yards. He is regarded as an excellent ball-hawk and a deadly tackler.

SCHOOL: Eddie was an all-around star at the University of Colorado. He won letters in football, baseball and track. As a track man, he was timed in 22.4 for the low hurdles.

Tom Scott

Del Shofner

Jack Stroud

Andy Stynchula

PERSONAL: Dove was born on April 4, 1937, in Hygiene, Colo., and grew up in Loveland, Colo., where he won all-state honors in football and track. He is married to the former Susan White and they have a daughter, 2½. Eddie is a veteran of Army service. In the off-season he is employed as an estimator for a contracting firm.

FRANK GIFFORD

Halfback

12th Year

Southern Cal

34 196 6-1

Scarsdale, N. Y.

PRO: Frank Gifford is now in the third year of a remarkable comeback. Giff quit pro ball after the 1960 season and then decided to return in 1962, something very few players ever have done. He not only made it back all the way, he did it at a new position—flanker back. In the first season of his comeback, Frank caught 39 passes for 796 yards and seven touchdowns, sparking the Giants' drive to the eastern title. Last year, he was equally outstanding with 42 receptions for 657 yards and another seven TDs. At 34, an age when most pro gridgers are contemplating retirement, Frank Gifford is looking ahead to a new career as one of the NFL's top pass receivers. Gifford was drafted No. 1 by New York in 1952. He has been one of the most versatile backs in NFL history, and also one of the finest. In 1956, Frank was third in receiving and fifth in rushing, the first player ever to finish so high in both categories the same year. He repeated in the top ten in 1957 with a fourth in receiving and a 10th in ball-carrying. Was named the league's MVP in 1956. Made the Pro Bowl for six straight seasons. Was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year—another first in NFL annals. A real triple-threater in his halfback heyday, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the pass-run option. One of the few stars in league history to play full 60 minutes, offense and defense, which he did for half the 1953 season. Frank holds four Giant career records—scoring (460 points), most passes caught (338), most reception yardage (5,005) and most touchdowns (74). He also holds the club record for most pass receptions in one game (11).

Bob Taylor

Aaron Thomas

Y. A. Tittle

Mickey Walker

SCHOOL: Genuine iron-man triple-threat player in the age of specialization at USC. As a senior, Frank rushed for 841 yards, completed 32 of 61 passes, scored seven TDs and kicked 26 extra points and two field goals for 74 points. Of 111 passes in three years, only three were intercepted. Also was accurate punter and top-flight pass receiver. Played both single-wing tailback and T-formation quarterback. Co-captained the East team against the West, and North against South—and played 60 minutes in both games! Was named to the American Football Coaches' All-American team in 1952. Turned down fantastic bid from Canadian League to sign with Giants. Prior to USC, Frank was an all-state player at Bakersfield High and made the Junior College All-American team while playing for Bakersfield, J. C.

PERSONAL: Born on August 16, 1930. Married the former Maxine Ewart, who was a campus queen at Southern Cal. They have three children—Jeff, 11; Kyle, 8; and Vickie, 5. Kyle is named for Kyle Rote, a longtime teammate of Frank's with the Giants. Frank's off-season activities include radio and TV work and commercial TV modeling. He also has appeared in numerous Hollywood films. Frank shoots golf in the mid-80s and is an excellent swimmer.

GLYNN GRIFFING

Quarterback

2nd Year

U. of Mississippi

23 200 6-1

Vicksburg, Miss.

PRO: Griffing was the Giants' No. 4 draft choice as a "future" selection in 1961. He was then a junior at Ole Miss and Giant scout Peahead Walker called him one of the two leading pro quarterback prospects in the country. Most other NFL clubs rated him among the most promising passers to come along in recent years. Glynn understudied Y. A. Tittle as a rookie in 1963. He completed 16 of 40 passes, three going for touchdowns.

SCHOOL: Mississippi's second All-American quarterback, Griffing led the Rebels to their first perfect season (9-0) in 1962 with brilliant passing and running. He drew top recognition on the Football Writers' All-American squad and was awarded second team status on the Associated Press and NEA elevens. In post-season combat he won the Outstanding Player awards in both the Sugar and Senior Bowl games. During Mississippi's unbeaten campaign, Glynn completed 72 of 122 passes for 882 yards and 11 touchdowns, barely missing a new SEC record for percentage efficiency, completing 59.0 percent against the conference mark of 60.8. He established three new Rebel career and one-season records, setting a new standard for seasonal pass completions by a T quarterback with 72, in total career completions with 127 and in career touchdown passes with 23. He tied Charlie Conerly's single-game high of four touchdown passes against Houston and became the 11th Reb to enter the "1000-Yard Club" with a total of 1,160 in nine games. Glynn also is a fine runner, and he averaged 4.8 yards on 110 carries in three seasons. Equally proficient on defense as both a corner linebacker or a halfback. Twice named all-SEC by AP and UPI.

PERSONAL: Griffing was born December 1, 1940, in Bentonla, Miss., but now lives in Vicksburg, Miss. He is married to the former Monica Roth and spends his off-season time working toward his degree at Ole Miss. He is Irish-English descent.

AL GURSKY

Linebacker

2nd Year

Penn State

24 210 6-1

Reading, Pa.

PRO: Al was drafted as a "future" by the Giants on the 12th round of the 1961 player draft. He was given a trial at defensive halfback in training camp, but was later switched to corner linebacker. He spent most of the 1963 season on the inactive squad out was activated late in the year and played most of the title game against Chicago after Tom Scott broke his arm.

SCHOOL: One of Penn State's foremost student-athletes, Al won letters in baseball and football and was a fixture on the athletic honor roll for three years. Although used primarily as a defensive back, Gursky found time in 1962 to carry the ball 39 times for 143 yards and catch 16 passes for another 152 yards. He also scored four TDs. On defense, he was a real ballhawk and was regarded as the Nittany Lions' surest tackler. Against Navy he intercepted a pass and ran it back 77 yards for a touchdown. He played in the 1960 Liberty Bowl, the 1961 Gator Bowl, the 1962 Gator Bowl and the Crusader Bowl. In baseball, Al batted .333 one season as Penn State's starting left-fielder.

PERSONAL: Born on November 23, 1940, in West Reading, Pa. Attended Governor Mifflin H. S. in Shillington, Pa., where he starred in football, baseball, basketball and track. Earned a B.S. degree in marketing and hopes someday to go into the new car business. He is married to the former Kay Lucas. Al is of Polish descent.

LOUIS GUY

Halfback

2nd Year

U. of Mississippi

23 185 6-0

McComb, Miss.

PRO: Guy was selected on the third round of the 1962 player draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. He was then traded to the Giants in the deal that sent halfback Paul Dudley to Philadelphia. Louis was activated in mid-season in 1963 and saw service as a kickoff return man. The Giants will use him as a flanker back this year, but he also can play defensive halfback if the need arises.

SCHOOL: At the U. of Mississippi, Guy was quarterback Glynn Griffing's favorite pass receiver. In three varsity campaigns he caught 37 for 440 yards and six touchdowns, and in three post-season bowl games he hauled in nine for 150 yards. Although used primarily as a receiver, the six-foot speedster also carried the ball 90 times in his career, gaining 434 yards for a 4.7 average and scoring four touchdowns. He tied two Ole Miss records as a senior, catching three TD passes against Houston and running 103 yards with an intercepted pass against Tennessee. He led the Rebels in scoring with 48 points in 1962 and is the school's fourth all-time receiver. In addition to his gridiron activities, Louis was a star sprinter on the Ole Miss track team.

PERSONAL: Guy was born on May 26, 1941, in McComb, Miss., where his family still resides. He is single and spends his off-season pursuing his medical studies. He hopes to become a doctor.

JERRY HILLEBRANDLinebacker*2nd Year*Colorado U.*24 240 6-3*Davenport, Iowa

PRO: Hillebrand was the Giants' No. 1 draft pick in 1962 after a sensational college career which earned him All-American honors as an end at Colorado. He was carried on the inactive list his first season and in 1963 made the squad as a corner linebacker. He moved into a starting berth early in the campaign when Bill Winter was injured, and eventually was named the Giants' rookie of the year. When Sam Huff was traded, coach Allie Sherman nominated Jerry as the man to take over the all-important middle linebacking spot this season. Hillebrand has the equipment to handle the assignment. He is big and fast and strong.

SCHOOL: Jerry was a unanimous All-American at the University of Colorado in 1961. He also earned all-conference and all-state honors in football and basketball. He holds the Colorado school record of most yards gained on pass receptions in one game—137. Also kicked a record 54-yard field goal. Played in the Orange Bowl and the Hula Bowl games after the 1961 season.

PERSONAL: Born on March 28, 1940, in Davenport, Ia., where he still makes his off-season home. Jerry is married to the former Judith Posatiri. He spent six months in U.S. Marine Corps prior to reporting to the Giants in 1962. Majored in physical education but is undecided as to what he wants to do in the future.

LANE HOWELLTackle*2nd Year*Grambling College*23 255 6-4*Monroe, La.

PRO: Howell was drafted on the fifteenth round by the Giants for the 1963 season. He earned stardom in college as a center and a linebacker, but made the grade in pro ball as an offensive tackle and finished the season as a starter at that position. Coach Allie Sherman feels Howell has the potential to become a truly fine pro tackle off his showing as a rookie.

SCHOOL: At Grambling, Howell was an all-conference center for two straight years and also won Little All America honorable mention. He captained the Grambling team for two seasons and won four varsity letters.

PERSONAL: Born on July 28, 1941, in Fomdale, La. His full name is Autrey Lane Howell but he prefers just Lane Howell. He received a physical education degree at Grambling and intends to teach and coach in high school. He is single. His boyhood football idol, incidentally, was Roosevelt Brown of the Giants.

DICK JAMES

Halfback

9th Year

Oregon

29 175 5-9

Forest Heights, Md.

PRO: James was the Washington Redskins' No. 8 draft choice for 1956 and developed into the most versatile back in the club's history. The first time he touched a ball as a Redskin he ran 83 yards for a touchdown against the Rams. And he kept right on going over the next eight seasons. His career totals are: 447 rushes for 1,741 yards; 92 catches for 1,568 yards, 98 punt returns for 784 yards; 155 kickoff returns for 3,949 yards and 31 touchdowns. Against the Eagles in 1958, Dick won awards as the game's outstanding player on offense and defense, a rare accomplishment in this day and age of the one-way specialist. He holds the Redskin one-game scoring record of 24 points and in 1961 earned the Hecht Award as "Redskin Player of the Year." James came to the Giants along with Andy Stynchula in 1964 in the trade that sent Sam Huff to Washington.

SCHOOL: Despite his small stature, James was a fine all-around halfback at the U. of Oregon. He won three letters and demonstrated his versatility by leading the club in rushing, receiving and scoring for two years. He was chosen for the East-West Shrine game but had to withdraw when he broke both wrists in a freak driving accident.

PERSONAL: James was born on May 22, 1934, in Grants Pass, Ore. He is married to the former Jeanne Paulding of Washington, D. C., and they have five children, Randy, Eddie, Colleen, Debbie and Johnny. Dick earned a B.S. degree in physical education and is an experienced recreation director. He is employed by a roofing company in the off-season.

JIM KATCAVAGE

End

9th Year

U. of Dayton

30 240 6-3

Philadelphia, Pa.

PRO: Jim was drafted No. 4 in 1956, joining the Giants at the same time as such other top rookie picks as Sam Huff and Don Chandler. He immediately won a starting berth at defensive end and was a big factor in the Giants' 1956 world championship. "Kat" can play either defensive end or tackle but coach Al Sherman prefers him at end, where he won All-Pro honors in the 1961, 1962 and 1963 AP and UPI polls. Jim used to be called "one of the most under-rated players" on the defense but now he ranks with the NFL's top defensive ends. He starred in the 1963 and 1964 Pro Bowl Games.

SCHOOL: Katcavage co-captained the Dayton eleven. He played end on both offense and defense, but the latter was his speciality. He made the All-American team in 1955 and also the Catholic All-American squad. Jim played in the East-West game in 1955 and the College All-Star game the following year.

PERSONAL: Born on October 28, 1934, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He is married to the former Catherine Gould. "Kat's" brother, Bob, played for the U. of Dayton eleven. Jim served six months as an Army Pfc. In the off-season he is in the concrete sales business in New York. Majored in industrial management. Lithuanian descent.

CHARLIE KILLETT

Halfback

2nd Year

Memphis State

23 205 6-1

Helena, Ark.

PRO: Killett was a "future" pick of the Giants on the sixteenth round of the 1962 draft but he decided to try pro ball in 1963 and finish his schooling in the off-season. A fast, slashing runner, Charlie made the club as an offensive halfback and saw spot duty as the Maramen drove to the NFL eastern title. He ran the ball 11 times for 36 yards and returned 14 kickoffs—most on the club—for 332 yards and a 23.7 per return average.

SCHOOL: Charlie played only two varsity seasons for Memphis State but showed enough power and speed to gain the notice of pro scouts. As a freshman he ran for two key touchdowns against the U. of Mississippi. Won two varsity letters and earned the nickname of "Wild Hoss" with his hard running.

PERSONAL: Born on November 8, 1940, in Helena, Ark. Was a star athlete at Central High in Helena but football was always his favorite sport. Served a year as a Pfc. in the Army Reserve and then married the former Linda Grady. Is studying industrial technology at Memphis State in the off-season. Is of Indian descent.

PHIL KING

Halfback

7th Year

Vanderbilt

28 220 6-4

Nashville, Tenn.

PRO: The Giants' No. 1 draft choice in 1958, Phil King has had an unusual career. He was a sensation as a rookie, playing all three backfield positions, but then injuries slowed him and for the next few years he did not reach his true potential. In 1962, however, Phil came back with a strong showing and gained 460 yards on 108 carries for a 4.3 average. Then in 1963 he emerged as the club's leading rusher with 613 yards on 161 carries for a 3.8 average. In addition to his running ability, King is a fine pass receiver and a solid blocker.

SCHOOL: Vanderbilt captain in 1957. Set all-time school rushing record. Played in Blue-Gray, Senior Bowl and Gator Bowl games. Corner man on defense in college. Threw javelin 195 feet and ran 100-yard dash in 10 seconds flat. Won seven varsity letters.

PERSONAL: Born June 22, 1936. Part Indian. Nicknamed "Chief." Married school sweetheart, Patsy Dean Keel and they have two children. Holds ROTC commission. Majored in business and history, and works as a sales representative for a Nashville trucking firm in the off-season.

LOU KIROUACTackle*2nd Year*Boston College*24 240 6-2*Manchester, N. H.

PRO: Kirouac was signed as a free agent in 1962 and impressed coach Allie Sherman in training camp right from the start. But he broke his leg in the opening pre-season game and spent the rest of the year on the inactive roster. In 1963 Lou came back stronger than ever and was switched from defensive end to offensive tackle, where he saw considerable action behind Rosey Brown during the season. He is now regarded as one of the club's most promising young linemen. Lou also is a talented place-kicker.

SCHOOL: Lou earned three letters in football and one in track at Boston College. He played offensive end and also did most of the place kicking. He won all-New England honors and received honorable mention in the 1961 All-American balloting. Played in the East-West game and the Hula Bowl. In track, Lou holds the B. C. javelin record of 202 feet. He had his biggest football day against Detroit when he led Boston College to victory with three TD catches and three extra points.

PERSONAL: Born on May 17, 1940, in Manchester, N. H. Both of his parents are French-Canadians. Lou is single. He hopes to pursue a business career in sales or research. His boyhood idol: Frank Gifford.

GREG LARSONCenter*4th Year*Minnesota*25 250 6-3*Minneapolis, Minn.

PRO: Larson was the Giants' No. 6 draft choice for 1961. Originally the plan was to use him at center, but Greg was moved to tackle as a rookie and won the starting job despite the fact that he hadn't played that position since his high school days. In 1962, Greg was shifted to guard and again the husky youngster responded with a superb performance as the Giants won the divisional title. When Ray Wietecha retired in 1963, Larson finally made it to his chosen position—center—and was a tower of strength in the middle of the line for the eastern champs. Three positions in three years! And a star at all of them—that's Greg Larson.

SCHOOL: Greg was the regular center and linebacker for Minnesota's 1961 Rose Bowl team. He was an AP and UPI All-Conference selection, All-Big Ten and also made the Catholic All-American team. He played in the Rose Bowl, Senior Bowl and Collge All-Star games.

PERSONAL: Born on November 15, 1939, Greg is married to the former Josephine Blegen. The young line star works in the investments field between seasons, and someday hopes to become a stock broker. He is of Swedish descent.

JOHN LoVETERE

Tackle

6th Year

Compton J.C.

28 285 6-4

Cypress, Calif.

PRO: The Giants acquired LoVetere from the Los Angeles Rams for Rosey Grier prior to the 1963 season—and it was one of the best moves the club ever made. The big guy was a pillar of strength at defensive tackle during the Maramen's drive to their third straight eastern championship. John gave the forward line another great pass rusher. LoVetere was the Rams' top defensive lineman for four years despite the fact that he was only a free agent with no major college experience. He was the club's Rookie of the Year in 1959 and earned MVP awards in 1960 and 1961. In 1960, Big John personally blocked five enemy kicks, a figure believed to be a league record.

SCHOOL: LoVetere attended Compton Junior College for two seasons but did not play varsity football. But he was scouted by the Rams while playing for Ft. Campbell in Kentucky and was signed immediately after being discharged from the Army.

PERSONAL: Born on May 31, 1936, in Boston, Mass., John is the oldest of eight brothers. He and his wife Evelyn have two children and live in Cypress, Calif. His favorite pastimes are hunting and weight-lifting. He used to spend a lot of time at the Los Angeles Athletic Club working out with shot-putting champion Dallas Long, another weight-lifting bug. LoVetere attended Paramount High in Los Angeles and once ran the hundred in 9.8.

DICK LYNCH

Halfback

7th Year

Notre Dame

28 198 6-1

Fresh Meadows, N. Y.

PRO: Lynch was drafted No. 6 by the Washington Redskins in 1958 and was a regular defensive halfback most of his rookie season. The Giants acquired him in a spring trade in 1959, giving up a fourth draft choice for the ex-Notre Dame star. With New York, Dick has blossomed into one of the finest defensive backs in the N.F.L. He was the league interception champion in 1961 with nine steals, and repeated as champion in 1963 with an equal number. He ran back three of his 1963 interceptions for touchdowns, however, which set a league record. Dick is one of the hardest tacklers in the business and a tough man to beat in any situation.

SCHOOL: Won three football letters at Notre Dame and was Irish ground-gaining leader and top defensive back. Best remembered as back who scored touchdown in memorable 7-0 win over Oklahoma which snapped Sooners' 47-game winning streak. Won All-Midwest honors and played in 1958 All-Star Game and North-South classic.

PERSONAL: Born April 29, 1936, in Oceanside, L. I. Has five brothers and two sisters. Attended St. Philip and St. James High in New Jersey. Second lieutenant in ROTC and served six months active duty in 1959. Married to former airline stewardess Roz Culp and they have two small daughters, Jennifer and Nancy Joy. Lives on Long Island and works as sales-promotion man for the Weyerhaeuser Co., Shorewood Division, a printing company.

HUGH McELHENNY

Halfback

13th Year

U. of Washington

35 190 6-1

Eastchester, N. Y.

PRO: McElhenny was the No. 1 draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 1952 and immediately earned the title of "King" of NFL halfbacks. After twelve seasons, he ranks third in total career offense with 11,239 yards, less than 100 yards behind the No. 2 man, Ollie Matson, who has 11,317. Jimmy Brown leads with 11,801. Hugh played nine seasons with San Francisco and then went to the Minnesota Vikings for two years before coming to New York in a 1963 trade for two future draft choices. A pulled muscle and then a knee injury slowed Mac down in his first year with New York but still The King was a vital factor in two or three of the club's "must" games en route to the eastern title. During his brilliant career, Mac has been a unanimous All-Pro on three occasions and has taken part in six Pro Bowl games. On his first play as a pro back in 1952, Hugh took a swing pass from Frankie Albert and went 40 yards for a touchdown.

SCHOOL: McElhenny was an All-American halfback at the U. of Washington in 1950 and 1951. He gained 2,499 yards for a Pacific Coast Conference career record, and also set a one-season rushing mark of 1,107 yards as a junior. He played in the East-West and Chicago All-Star games. Hugh began his career at Comp-ton Junior College and starred in the smashing Junior Rose Bowl win over Duluth J.C. In 1950, Mac enjoyed the greatest day of his collegiate career against Washington State when he scored five touchdowns and gained 298 yards rushing.

PERSONAL: Born on December 31, 1928, in Los Angeles of Irish parents. Married to the former Peggy Ogston and they have two daughters, Karen, 11, and Susan 8. Majored in business administration and is employed by the W. J. Burns National Detective Agency as a junior executive. Resides in Eastchester, N. Y., a suburb of New York City. His hobbies include water skiing and golf. While a student at George Washington H.S. in Los Angeles, Hugh tied the world interscholastic record in the high hurdles.

JOE MORRISON

	Halfback			6th Year
Cincinnati	27	200	6-1	Lima, O.

PRO: No. 3 draft selection in 1959. Developed into one of the finest rookie finds of the campaign. Gained 747 yards by rushing, receiving and running back kicks as a freshman in NFL. Played both halfback spots when Gifford and Webster were injured. Not overly fast, but runs with power and nifty change of pace. Was club's second best ground-gainer in 1960 with 346 yards. Also caught 29 passes for another 367 yards. In 1961, when injuries hit the Giants' secondary, Morrison was switched to defense and finished up as the regular left safety. He intercepted two passes, one of which set up the Giants' only TD in the division-clinching 7-7 tie with Cleveland. As an all-purpose back in 1962, Joe carried 35 times for 146 yards, and caught six passes for 107 yards. He had his best rushing year in 1963 with 568 yards on 119 carries.

SCHOOL: One of Cincinnati's all-time greats. Set school career scoring record of 128 points. Tied another individual mark at 21 touchdowns in three varsity seasons. Was standout quarterback in soph and junior seasons but switched to halfback in 1958. Led Missouri Valley Conference scorers in 1959 with 56 points and caught 27 passes for 303 yards. Gained 467 yards rushing for a 4.7 yard average. Also starred on defense.

PERSONAL: Born August 21, 1937. Married to former Barbara McDorman. They have three children. Works for steel company in Ohio during off-season. Scotch-English descent.

JIMMY PATTON

Safety

10th Year

U. of Mississippi

31 185 5-11

Stamford, Conn.

PRO: Drafted on the eighth round in 1955 after impressing pro scouts with his speed and ball-hawking ability. As a rookie, Jim scored touchdowns on a 98-yard kickoff return and a 70-yard punt return in the same game. He was the NFL interception champion in 1958 with 11 steals, and tied for second in 1961 with eight. Plays regular right safety for the Giants and is regarded as dean of pro defensive backs. Has been named to the Pro Bowl for the past four years in a row and also is a perennial All Pro selection on defense. Serves as player-assistant to defensive coach Andy Robustelli. (See page 8.)

SCHOOL: Patton is regarded as one of the finest defensive football players ever turned out at Mississippi. Also starred on offense for Ole Miss and once scored 26 points in a single game—against Tulane. Won varsity letters in baseball and track in addition to three football monograms. Was timed in 9.9 for the hundred. Jim played in the Sugar Bowl games for 1953 and 1955. He was captain at Ole Miss in his senior year.

PERSONAL: Born September 29, 1933. Married to the former Adonis Brulgers. They have three children, all boys. In the off-season, Jim is employed as a sales representative for Marlboro cigarettes. He attended E.E. Bass High School in his hometown of Greenville, Miss., and was a star quarterback there. Plays the clarinet. His hobbies include hunting and fishing.

DICK PESONENHalfback*5th Year*Minnesota (Duluth)*26 190 6-0*New York City

PRO: Pesonen was signed as a free agent by the Green Bay Packers in 1960 and was acquired by Minnesota the following year when Green Bay put him in the players' pool to help stock the new Viking franchise. The Giants obtained Dick in a 1962 trade for veteran linebacker Cliff Livingston and a high draft choice. He filled in capably at defensive halfback that first year, and last season he won a starting berth at safety. Dick is a vicious tackler and has very quick reflexes.

SCHOOL: Attended the University of Minnesota for one year and then transferred to the U. of Minnesota Duluth branch, where he won all-conference honors at halfback in 1959 and set six school records. Captained the Duluth eleven and gained Little All-American honorable mention in 1959. Also won two letters in basketball. As an offensive halfback, Dick twice scored four TDs and rushed for 190 yards during the 1959 season.

PERSONAL: Born on June 10, 1938, in Grand Rapids, Minn., Dick is married to the former Barbara Anderson and they reside in New York City. Dick is an avid golfer, and holds the competitive record at the Proctor, Minn., course. He also spends a lot of time fishing and hunting. He is in the printing business in the off-season. He is of Finnish descent.

TOM SCOTTLinebacker*12th Year*Virginia*34 220 6-2*New Canaan, Conn.

PRO: Scott was obtained from the Philadelphia Eagles prior to the 1959 season and has been a bulwark for the Giants' defensive unit ever since. The veteran linebacker won a regular corner spot in 1960 and is still there. The Eagles originally obtained Scotty from the Los Angeles Rams. Tom was a long-time member of the Eagles' famed "Suicide Seven" defensive squad. He plays either end or linebacker and is regarded as one of the toughest guys on the New York team.

SCHOOL: Tom earned All-American honors in two sports at Virginia—football and lacrosse, one of the few men ever to achieve the "double". He captained the Cavalier football team and won All-South laurels two straight years (1951-52). He also won letters in baseball and basketball.

PERSONAL: Born on September 3, 1930, Scotty is married to the former Joan Davis and they have five children—Tom, David, Sandy, Mike and Pat. Tom is an amateur inventor and has had several items patented. He is employed by Massachusetts Mutual in the off-season. He is of English-German descent.

DEL SHOFNER

End

8th Year

Baylor University

29 190 6-3

San Gabriel, Calif.

PRO: The Los Angeles Rams had two first-round draft picks in 1956—their own, of course, and one they had received from the Giants in exchange for defensive end Andy Robustelli. The Rams chose Jon Arnett and then, using the Giants' No. 1 selection, they drafted Del Shofner. As a rookie in 1957, Shofner played defensive halfback for the Rams. In 1958, however, he was moved to offensive end and immediately became a sensation by catching 51 passes for a league high of 1,097 yards. Del had another good year in 1959 with 47 receptions but injuries slowed him down the following season and, prior to the 1961 campaign, he was traded to the Giants for a No. 1 draft choice. Del responded by catching 68 passes for 1,125 yards, tops in the NFL, as New York won the eastern title. In 1962 he again finished high on the league receiving list with 53 for 1,133 yards and 12 touchdowns. And last season he caught 64 for 1,181 yards. In his brief NFL career, Del has won All Pro designation five times (twice with the Rams and three times with New York) and has starred in five Pro Bowl games. Shofner was a punter with the Rams and owns a career average of 43 yards per kick.

SCHOOL: Del entered Baylor College in Waco, Tex., in September, 1953, and graduated in 1957 after one of the most brilliant football, track and basketball careers in the school's history. All told, he won seven varsity letters—three in football, two in baseball and two in track. In 1956 he led Baylor in rushing, scoring, receiving, punting, pass interceptions, punt and kickoff returns—every department except passing. In addition, his 60 points and 40.7 punting average led the Southwest Conference in these categories. As a running halfback, Del averaged 6.1 yards per carry during his three varsity seasons. A 9.8 sprinter, he ran the anchor leg on the Baylor half-mile relay team which won that event at the Drake, Texas and Kansas relays, and on the 440-yard relay team which tied the world record at 40.2. In basketball, the 6-3 stringbean was a regular forward for three years. Del played in the 1957 Sugar Bowl against Tennessee and was named the MVP. He also played in the 1954 Gator Bowl, the Senior Bowl and the College All Star game. All this was accomplished despite the fact that Shofner suffered severely from anemia and ulcers all during his career at Baylor.

PERSONAL: Born on December 11, 1934, in Center, Tex., and was an all-around athletic star at Center High before winning scholarship to Baylor. Comes from family of seven children, two boys and five girls. German-English descent. Majored in math at Baylor and was above-average student. He is married to the former Carol Seley and they have an infant daughter. Several TV scouts have recently evinced an interest in Del for possible western roles. In the off-season, Shofner plays golf as often as he can when he isn't representing the Old Gold Sports Bureau. Spent six months as Pfc. in Army reserve.

JACK STROUD

Tackle

12th Year

Tennessee

36 250 6-1

Cedargrove, N. J.

PRO: Stroud was the Giants' fourth draft choice in 1951 but served two years as a 1st Lt. in the Army Paratroops Corps and didn't report for football until the 1953 season. He was one of the sharpest and widest ranging blockers in pro ball in his prime as a guard. Jack has been slowed in recent seasons by a series of knee injuries, and has been used mostly at tackle. He underwent knee surgery last spring and the doctors report his leg is once again sound.

SCHOOL: Jack captained the University of Tennessee eleven and won All-American laurels at tackle in 1951. He also played in the Cotton Bowl and the College All-Star game. Stroud won eight varsity letters at Tennessee, four in track and four in football. He won six javelin titles and set the school record of 203 feet.

PERSONAL: Born on January 29, 1928, in Fresno, Calif. Is married and his two children, a boy and a girl. He is employed by the Eastern Colortype Corporation of Clifton, N. J.

ANDY STYNCHULATackle*5th Year*Penn State*25 250 6-3*Fairfax, Va.

PRO: Stynchula was the No. 3 draft pick of the Washington Redskins for the 1960 season and won the starting right end job on defense in his very first scrimmage. He played in 36 consecutive games until an injury forced him to miss his first contest. He came to the Giants in 1964 along with Dick James in the trade that sent Sam Huff to Washington. Andy can play either end or tackle, but coach Allie Sherman plans to use him at the latter position.

SCHOOL: Andy earned three letters at Penn State, playing both end and tackle for the Nittany Lions. He played in the 1959 Liberty Bowl, the 1959 Blue-Gray game and in the Senior Bowl and College All-Star games in 1960.

PERSONAL: Stynchula was born on January 7, 1939, in Greenwald, Pa. His family later moved to Latrobe, Pa., where he was a three-sport star in high school. He is married to the former Theresa Koss of Beaver, Pa., and they have two children, Andy Michael, 4, and Tammy Ann, 2. He has a degree in business administration.

BOB TAYLOREnd*2nd Year*Maryland State*25 242 6-3*Flushing, N. Y.

PRO: Taylor was the Giants' ninth draft pick in 1963 after earning the praise of pro scouts for his rugged defensive line play at Maryland State. He spent his rookie season understudying Andy Robustelli at defensive end, and is regarded as the leading candidate for that job in 1964. At 6-3 and 204, Bob also has the speed to play linebacker in the pro ranks.

SCHOOL: Played tackle for most of his career at Maryland State but was switched to end for a few games at the end of his senior year and was a real standout. Captained the Maryland State team in 1961 and 1962. An all-conference selection twice, he also played in the Crusader Bowl. Bob was captain of the college golf team, too, and was a two-time conference tournament medalist. He also won three letters in basketball.

PERSONAL: Born on February 5, 1940, in Columbia, S. C. Majored in industrial relations and math. Spent two years in the Army (82nd Airborne Division) and attained the rank of sergeant. He is single and is employed by the Arnold Baking Company. His hobby? Golf—naturally. He's a good one, too, always around par.

AARON THOMASEnd*4th Year*Oregon State*27 210 6-3*Portland, Ore.

PRO: Thomas was the fourth round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 1961 and came into the NFL with the reputation of being one of the brightest young receiving stars in many years. The Giants acquired Aaron at the start of the 1962 season in a straight player deal for halfback Bobby Gaiters. Thomas saw only limited action, catching four passes for 80 yards, but in 1963 he played tight end, flanker and split end and caught 22 passes for 469 yards and three touchdowns, easily fulfilling his earlier promise as a receiver. He led the club with an average of 21.3 yards per catch.

SCHOOL: At Oregon State, coach Tommy Prothro called Thomas "the best end I've ever coached." An injury sidelined Aaron most of his senior year but still he was highly regarded enough to be named the starting end on the West Shrine squad. As a sophomore at Oregon State he caught 11 aerials for 180 yards, and as a junior end he snared 13 for 165 yards. Captained the Oregon State eleven as a senior and earned three major letters. Played in College All Star and All American Bowl games.

PERSONAL: Born on November 7, 1937, in Dierks, Ark., Thomas now lives in Portland, Ore. He was a fabulous high school athlete before going on to Oregon State. He is married to the former Jeanie Cairney and they have two young sons. Aaron hopes to enter school administration after his football days.

Y. A. TITTLEQuarterback*15th Year*L.S.U.*38 195 6-0*Atherton, Calif.

PRO: The Giants engineered one of the most profitable trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for quarterback Y. A. Tittle. The then 35-year-old passing ace, who spent two years in the old All-America Conference and 11 seasons in the NFL before coming to the Giants, promptly led the Maramen to their 12th eastern division championship as he stepped in to share the quarterbacking chores with Charlie Conerly. Yat enjoyed a highly productive campaign. He finished sixth in the league in passing with 163 completions in 285 attempts for 2,272 yards and 17 TDs. The story was almost the same in 1962. Yat completed 200 passes in 375 attempts for 3,224 yards. His 33 touchdown passes set a new NFL record and his seven TD passes against Washington tied another league mark. But 1963 had to be Tittle's greatest year.

He led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes set an all time one-season record, and his 202 career scoring aeriols also set a new mark. All told, Tittle has been playing professional football for 17 years. He was the first draft pick of Baltimore in the AAC and played two seasons (1948-49) in that league. Baltimore moved into the NFL in 1950 and then, in 1951, San Francisco made Yat its top pick when the Baltimore franchise was dissolved and its players were acquired by other clubs. In 14 NFL campaigns, the balding aerial ace has compiled a completion average of 55.4, which is best among all active pro quarterbacks. He was the NFL "Player of the Year" in 1957 when he led San Francisco to a tie for the western title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took Giants to eastern championships. Also was named to the NEA, N. Y. News and UPI all pro elevens in 1961, 1962 and 1963 and was the starting quarterback for the East squad in the Pro Bowl game all three years.

SCHOOL: Tittle entered Louisiana State U. as a 17-year-old freshman tailback in 1944 and became a great passing star when LSU switched to the T formation the following year. Yat won All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1946 and 1947. One of his college rivals in those days was Charlie Conerly, then a star at Mississippi. Tittle played in the Blue-Gray game in 1944 and 1945 and in the Cotton Bowl in 1946. His most memorable day as a collegian, however, occurred in 1944, his freshman year, when he completed 15 of 17 passes for 200 yards to beat Tulane single-handedly.

PERSONAL: Born on October 24, 1926, in Marshall, Tex. Graduated from Marshall High School in 1944 and won a scholarship to L.S.U. Has one sister and two brothers, one of whom, Jack, also was a football star. Yat is married to the former Minnette DeLoach and they have three children, two boys and a girl. Tittle is a partner in a Palo Alto, Calif., insurance brokerage, and operates a boys' camp in Napa Valley. His chief hobby is playing golf. He also is an avid yachtsman in the Bay Area.

MICKEY WALKER

Linebacker

4th Year

Michigan State

25 235 6-0

Mt. Clemens, Mich.

PRO: Mickey was signed as a free agent in 1961. He came to camp as a linebacking candidate but failed to make the grade at that position and was subsequently shifted to guard. He filled in at guard behind Darrell Dess and Jack Stroud in his rookie season. But in 1962 coach Allie Sherman, impressed by Walker's hard hitting and aggressiveness, switched him back to defense as a linebacker. He played there in 1963 and also worked as a reserve center behind Greg Larson. Mickey is one of the stalwarts of the Giants' kickoff and punt teams, the so-called "suicide squads."

SCHOOL: Walker was a top guard and part-time linebacker at Michigan State. He won two varsity letters with the Spartans and played in the Blue-Gray game in 1960.

PERSONAL: Mickey was born on October 14, 1939, in Petoskey, Mich., of Irish parents. The family later moved to East Detroit, Mich., where Mickey, whose real name is George, became an all-around sports star in high school. He is married to the former Colleen Brestle and they have a two-year-old daughter. When he isn't playing football, Mickey teaches school in Mt. Clemens. He hopes someday to become a high school coach.

U. of Pittsburgh

28 205 6-0

Stamford, Conn.

PRO: Walton was No. 1 draft selection of Washington in 1957. Came to the Giants in July of 1961 along with teammate Jim Podoley in a deal which sent four Giant players to Washington. Walton played as a defensive end during his rookie season but switched to offense in 1958 and has been one of the league's top all-around ends ever since. Fine pass-catcher and better than average blocker. He is used by Giants as a tight or close end, but still managed to have his best year in 1961 by catching 36 passes for 544 yards. In 1962 he caught 33 for 406 yards and contributed nine big touchdown receptions, including Y. A. Tittle's record-setting 33rd scoring pass of the year against Dallas. Last year Joe caught 26 for 371 yards and six touchdowns.

SCHOOL: All-American end at the University of Pittsburgh. Captained the Panthers in 1956, and led the nation in touchdown catches that year. Played in 1956 Sugar Bowl, 1957 Gator Bowl and 1957 All Star game. Won letters in baseball, too.

PERSONAL: Born on December 15, 1935, in Beaver Falls, Pa. Son of late Frank (Tiger) Walton, one of Redskins' greatest players (1934-35, 1944-45), who was Washington line coach in 1948. Salesman for Neptune Moving Co. Served as Pfc. in Army in 1959. Is now a member of the D.C. National Guard. Kid brother Frank played football at Pittsburgh, too. Joe is married to former Virginia Pailes and they have a baby daughter. He is of Italian-Irish descent.

ALLAN WEBBHalfback*4th Year*Arnold College*30 180 5-10*Ansonia, Conn.

PRO: Webb was signed as a free agent in 1961 off the sandlots of Connecticut on the advice of Andy Robustelli and became one of the biggest success stories in Giant history. Held on the inactive list for most of his rookie year, Allan was activated when injuries hit the club in mid-season and played offensive and defensive halfback down the torrid eastern division stretch drive. In 1962, he came back and won a regular safety job alongside Jim Patton and was a consistent, aggressive performer during another title season. Last year he shared the safety spot with Dick Pesonen, and intercepted three passes.

SCHOOL: Allan played offensive halfback and safety at Arnold College, which is now defunct. He won all-state honors and Little All-American honorable mention. He also won letters in baseball and track. Al enjoyed his top day against Adelphi College when he gained 151 yards of the 175 yards rolled up by Arnold.

PERSONAL: Born on January 22, 1934, in Washington, D.C. Is married to the former Olga Rojas and they have a daughter, Lisa, 6. Allan works as recreation director of the Connecticut State Prison in the off-season, and also attends Southern Connecticut State College at night. He served two years in the U.S. Navy. Hobby: collecting pop records.

ALEX WEBSTERFullback*10th Year*N. Carolina St.*33 220 6-3*E. Brunswick, N. J.

PRO: Webster was the No. 12 draft choice of the Washington Redskins in 1953 but was cut from the squad in training camp. He signed as a free agent with Montreal and for the next two years was the top halfback in Canadian football. He joined the Giants in 1955 and teamed with Frank Gifford to form one of the most potent halfback combinations in pro history. Although slowed by a mysterious back ailment in 1963, Big Red gained enough yards and scored enough points to move into the lead in several all-time Giant record categories. He has gained the most yards rushing in club history (4,595), the most touchdowns rushing (36) and has the most rushing attempts (1,137). Additionally, Alex ranks fourth among all-time Giant scorers with 318 points, and needs only one more point to move into the third spot. Webster enjoyed his greatest season in 1961 when he gained 928 yards rushing to finish third in the NFL. He was switched from halfback to fullback that season. He is regarded as a great pass blocker and a fine receiver.

SCHOOL: Played offensive halfback and defensive safety for North Carolina State. Twice won designation to the All-Southern Conference first team. Won six major letters, three in football and three in baseball. Was a tailback at Kearny High School in New Jersey and made the All-State eleven two years in a row.

PERSONAL: Born April 19, 1931, in Kearny, N. J. Scotch descent. Was a Giant fan as a youngster and often watched team play from seat in Polo Grounds bleachers. Married to the former Louise Eggers and they have two children. Alex' hobby is bowling, and he's a good one with an average of close to 190. Brother Jimmy Webster had try-out with Giants in 1960 and later played in Canada. In off-season, Alex is employed as a printing salesman and also is a popular after-dinner speaker.

BILL WINTERLinebacker*3rd Year*St. Olaf*24 220 6-3*Spring Valley, Minn.

PRO: Winter was the Giants' No. 18 draft pick for 1962 and turned out to be the club's Rookie of the Year as the regular left corner linebacker. Showed great range and speed and, despite his inexperience, was one of the staunchest members of the defensive unit. In 1963, a knee injury put him on the sideline for the second half of the season, but he has made a full recovery and big things are expected of him.

SCHOOL: Bill won eight letters at little St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., starring in football, baseball and basketball. Captained the St. Olaf eleven and earned Little All-American honors. Played fullback and linebacker and also did all the punting.

PERSONAL: Born on January 28, 1940, in Milbank, S. Dakota. He majored in English at St. Olaf but has not yet decided on a career. Bill is still single, and he spent six months in the Army reserve at Fort Dix, N. J., after the 1962 season. His hobby: playing the guitar.

ROOKIE PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

ED ADAMCHICKGuard*Rookie*U. of Pittsburgh*22 230 6-2*Johnstown, Pa.

PRO: Ed was the Giants' No. 12 draft choice as a "future" selection in 1962. He played two years at tackle and then moved to guard as a senior. That's where he will get his shot with the pros.

SCHOOL: Adamchick is typical of the rough and ready linemen turned out by Pittsburgh. Ed made the UPI All-East first team as a senior, and also was named to the NEA All-American second team, the All-Pennsylvania second team and received honorable mention on the UPI All-American. He won three football letters but did not participate in any other sport.

PERSONAL: Ed was born on November 2, 1941, in Johnstown, Pa., where the Adamchick family still resides. He is a bachelor and has not yet decided on his future. He is of Slovak descent.

ROGER ANDERSONTackle*Rookie*Virginia Union*22 255 6-5*Arlington, Va.

PRO: Picked seventh in the 1963 player draft, Anderson comes highly regarded as a defensive tackle. He is an aggressive tackler with size and speed.

SCHOOL: Roger earned four football letters at Virginia Union and was a three-time member of the Central Intercollegiate A.A. first team. He set a school defensive record by making 20 unassisted tackles in a single ball game.

PERSONAL: Anderson was born on November 11, 1942, in Bedford, Va., and attended high school in Oxford, N. C. He holds a B.A. degree in elementary education and hopes someday to become a physical therapist. He is single.

CODY BINKLEYLinebacker*Rookie*Vanderbilt*24 215 6-2*Gallatin, Tenn.

PRO: Binkley was the fifth draft choice of the Giants as a "future" in 1960 but his pro career had to wait until he served two years in the Army as a First Lieutenant. He returns in 1964 as a strong candidate for one of the linebacking posts.

SCHOOL: Cody captained the Vanderbilt eleven for two seasons as a center and linebacker, winding up his career with a great performance in the North-South game in 1961.

PERSONAL: Binkley was born in Benton, Ky., on December 23, 1939, and played his high school football in Gallatin, Tenn. His two-year Army hitch included a tour in Germany. He is single. Scotch-Irish descent. His hobby is hunting.

CLARENCE CHILDSHalfback*Rookie*Florida A&M*25 190 5-11*Lakeland, Fla.

PRO: Childs was signed as a free agent by the Giants in 1961, spent one season on the inactive squad and then left for two years' service in the Army. He is regarded as a solid prospect at offensive halfback because of his great speed.

SCHOOL: During his varsity career at Florida A&M, Childs won four letters in football as a great running back and three letters in track as a 220 champion. He was named to several All-American teams in 1959 and was a two-time All-SIAC choice. He played in the 1960 All America Bowl game.

PERSONAL: Childs was born on January 13, 1938, in Lakeland, Fla., where he still makes his home. A bachelor, he is a school teacher in the off-season. Clarence was a member of the Military Police during his Army hitch and was named to the All-Army football team in 1963. He holds a B.S. degree in history.

JOHN CONTOULIS

Tackle

Rookie

U. of Connecticut 23 260 6-4 New London, Conn.

PRO: One of several free agents signed by the Giants in 1964, Contoulis is a fast, powerful lineman who will be given a thorough trial at defensive tackle.

SCHOOL: Contoulis captained the U. of Connecticut team and was a standout two-way tackle who made the Little All-American third team and was an all-New England first team selection for two seasons. He won three varsity grid letters and finished his collegiate career with a solid performance in the Blue-Gray game.

PERSONAL: John was born on October 9, 1940, in New London, Conn., of Greek parents. He played fullback, end and tackle at New London High School. Earned a B.S. degree in physical education and someday hopes to coach football and teach physical education. John is single.

TONY DiMIDIO

End

Rookie

West Chester St. 22 245 6-5 West Chester, Pa.

PRO: One of the most promising linemen to come to the Giants in some time, DiMidio was the club's No. 5 draft selection for 1963. He played tackle in college but will get a trail as a defensive end in the pro ranks.

SCHOOL: Tony was an All-Pennsylvania selection as a tackle for little West Chester State Teachers College, and also earned All-Conference honors. He played in the 1962 Cement Bowl. In addition to his gridiron activities, DiMidio won letters in track and field as a shot-putter and discus man.

PERSONAL: DiMidio was born on August 20, 1942, in Bryn Mawr, Pa. He is married to the former June Sturzebecker and they have two children. Tony aspires to a career in teaching and coaching. He holds a degree in physical education. He was a fine all-around athlete at Upper Darby, Pa., Senior High School. He is of Italian descent.

MILLARD FLEMINGMarshall College*Halfback*24 197 6-1*Rookie*Toledo, O.

PRO: Fleming was signed as a free agent on the advice of several coaches who had seen him play in the United Football League during the 1963 season. He has great speed and range and will be tried as a defensive back by the Giants.

SCHOOL: At Marshall College in Huntington, W. Va., Fleming was an all-around halfback and a star sprinter with the track team. He won three football letters and two in track. After leaving Marshall, he played one season with the Ottawa Roughriders in the Canadian League and then went to the United League with Toledo.

PERSONAL: Fleming was born on June 6, 1940, in Beckley, W. Va. He is married to the former Maxine Mitchell and they have two sons. Millard would like to teach school some day. Right now he works as a truck driver between football seasons.

BILLY HARRISHalfback*Rookie*Colorado U.*22 207 6-1*Hackensack, N. J.

PRO: Harris was the 14th selection of the Giants in the player draft for 1964. He is a big, fast back who could make a fine defensive man as a pro. He thrives on body contact and is a hard tackler.

SCHOOL: As an offensive halfback at Colorado, Harris earned three varsity letters and won All-Big Eight Conference honors. He also received honorable mention on the 1963 All-America team. Billy set a Colorado school record once by carrying the ball 35 times in one game. He played in the 1962 Orange Bowl.

PERSONAL: Billy was born on May 30, 1942, in Hackensack, N. J., where his family still resides. He is single. He holds a degree in physical education.

FRANK IMPERIALEGuard*Rookie*Southern Illinois*24 265 6-2*Port Jefferson, L.I.

PRO: A New York boy who played his high school football at Carle Place, L. I., Imperiale was signed as a free agent on the recommendation of several local coaches. Prior to joining the Giants, he had a tryout with the Detroit Lions as a defensive end. The Maramen plan to try him first at guard.

SCHOOL: Imperiale attended Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Ill., where he played four years of varsity ball, winning a like number of letters. He was an all-conference selection as a guard and defensive end. Frank also earned a letter in wrestling. He attended the U. of Tennessee for one year.

PERSONAL: Imperiale was born on March 20, 1939, in New York City. He is married to the former Marie Foglio and they have a year-old daughter. Frank still has some work to do toward his degree and then he hopes to enter the field of physical therapy.

HOMER JONES

Halfback

Rookie

Texas Southern

23 200 6-1

Pittsburg, Tex.

PRO: Jones was the No. 20 draft choice of the Giants for the 1963 season, even though at the time he already had signed with Houston of the American Football League. But a knee injury plagued Homer and he was released. He then called the Giants and asked if they would be interested in giving him a trial. "We certainly would," said coach Al Sherman. "Grab the first plane and get to New York right away." Jones showed the Giants enough to warrant keeping him on the inactive squad in 1963. He underwent knee surgery after the training camp period and has made a complete recovery. Although he's best suited to flanker back because of his great speed, Jones will get a look-see at a running back spot in training camp.

SCHOOL: Homer was a two-sport star at Texas Southern, winning three letters each in football and track. On the gridiron, he led Texas Southern in pass receiving for two years. As a dash man in track, Jones ran the hundred in 9.3 and set a Southwest Athletic Conference record of 20.7 in the 220. He won four gold medals for the U.S. track team that humbled the Russians in Moscow in 1960. He was all-conference in football.

PERSONAL: Homer Carroll Jones was born on February 18, 1941, in Pittsburg, Tex., where he still lives. He majored in industrial education in college but still has time to go for his degree.

JOHN KOVACH

Linebacker

Rookie

John Carroll U.

22 218 6-0

Bedford, O.

PRO: Kovach was signed as a free agent after impressing pro scouts with his size and aggressiveness. Played defensive end in college but will be tried as a linebacker by the Giants.

SCHOOL: At John Carroll University, Kovach captained the defensive team and earned All-Conference honors and was a three-time Catholic All-American selection. In 1961, he was named the school's outstanding lineman, and in 1963 as a senior he was voted the John Carroll Loyalty Award. John also won letters in track and was timed in 22.3 for the 220-yard dash.

PERSONAL: Kovach was born on August 1, 1942, in Cleveland, O., but attended St. Vincent Prep in Latrobe, Pa. John earned a degree in sociology and hopes to become a social worker with adolescents. He is single and is of Hungarian descent.

FRANK LASKY

Tackle

Rookie

U. of Florida

22 265 6-2

Gainesville, Fla.

PRO: The Giants pin-pointed Lasky as a "future" on the second round of the 1962 draft. Scout Peahead Walker called him "the finest tackle in college football" after Frank's fine junior season at Florida. He has the size and speed to play either offensive or defensive tackle in the pro ranks.

SCHOOL: Lasky ranks as one of the top linemen in University of Florida annals. He won All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1962 and was a pre-season selection on many of the 1963 All-American teams. He starred in the 1962 Gator Bowl game, and also played in the North-South Shrine game and the Senior Bowl. Prior to entering Florida, Lasky attended Northeast Oklahoma Junior College.

PERSONAL: Frank was born on October 4, 1941, in New York City, but spent most of his boyhood in Coral Gables, Fla. He is married to the former Joanne Lacaff. Lasky plans to finish work toward his degree during the next year and then enter coaching as a profession. He is of Polish descent.

JOE DON LOONEY

Fullback

Rookie

Oklahoma

21 230 6-1

Fort Worth, Tex.

PRO: Looney was the No. 1 draft pick of the Giants for the 1964 season, and few rookies have come into the league with more impressive credentials. Joe Don is a big, rugged boy with the speed of a sprinter. He can run, pass, block, punt and catch and most pro scouts feel he's a sure thing to attain stardom in the NFL.

SCHOOL: Joe Don had only one full season at Oklahoma (1962) but that was enough to establish him as a real "find." He played fullback for Cameron Junior College in Lawton, Okla., the national junior college champions in 1961, and then joined Bud Wilkinson's Sooner squad just three weeks before the opening game of the 1962 season against Syracuse, which he won with a 60-yard scoring dash in the final minutes. Looney finished his junior year as the fifth best rusher in the country 852 yards and a 6.2 average) and the top punter, averaging 43.4 yards on 34 kicks. He also led Oklahoma in scoring with 62 points. Looney was an explosive runner in the open field and a devastating line-plunger in close. His showing in 1962 won him second team berths on the Sporting News and Central Press All-American teams and a starting spot on the UPI All-Big Eight Conference squad. As a senior in 1963, Joe Don got off to a good start but left school prior to the end of the campaign.

PERSONAL: Looney was born on October 10, 1942, in San Angelo, Tex. His father, Don Looney, was Davy O'Brien's favorite pass target at Texas Christian back in 1937 and 1938 and more recently was an official in the NFL. Joe Don graduated from Fort Worth Paschal High School, where in addition to his football he was a state sprint champion. He served six months in the Army prior to reporting to the Giants' training camp. Looney is single. He is of Irish-English descent.

JIM MORAN

Tackle

Rookie

U. of Idaho

22 250 6-5

Spokane, Wash.

PRO: Moran was the No. 10 draft choice of the Giants for the 1964 season and is regarded as one of the most promising linemen to join the New York club in several years. He will be given a trial at offensive tackle but his real future may be with the defensive line. He is an aggressive ballplayer with speed and strength.

SCHOOL: At Idaho, Jim earned Lineman of the Week honors on several occasions and was a tower of strength as a defensive tackle in his senior year. His coach, Dee Andros, said of him, "Jim is the kind of lineman who makes your linebackers look great." Moran was the first Vandal to be named to the Senior Bowl since Jerry Kramer (Green Bay). He also played in the College All-Star game.

PERSONAL: James Harry Moran was born on May 4, 1942, in Spokane, Wash., where he still makes his home. He was graduated from Gonzaga Prep in 1960. He and his wife Eleanor, who were married before they left high school, are the parents of five children. Jim majored in physical education at Idaho and finished work toward his degree at Gonzaga University. He hopes to teach and coach.

JOHN MOUNT

End

Rookie

Villanova

24 230 6-3

W. Caldwell, N. J.

PRO: Jack was signed as a free agent in 1964. Pro scouts, who saw Mount play with the Jersey Giants of the Atlantic Coast Conference, regard him as a fine defensive end prospect. Has good speed and size.

SCHOOL: An end at Villanova University, Jack participated in the Sun Bowl in 1961. He also played baseball and was offered a contract with the Milwaukee Braves. Regards teammate Lou Kirouac as the outstanding player he ever faced in college.

PERSONAL: Born July 10, 1940, in Newark, New Jersey. Single. Majored in marketing at college. Jack would like to go into public relations or coaching after his pro football career is over. Brother Bob now is playing football at the University of Wichita.

BILL PASHE

Halfback

Rookie

George Washington

23 175 6-0

Montvale, N. J.

PRO: Pashe was drafted No. 18 by the Giants for the 1963 season and impressed everyone in camp with his speed and ball-hawking ability. He was one of the last men cut prior to the start of the season but had shown enough to warrant being retained on the inactive squad. Bill should be a strong contender for a secondary role this year.

SCHOOL: Bill won five varsity letters at George Washington, three in baseball and two in football. Although known primarily for his defensive capabilities, Bill was a fine offensive back too. As a senior he averaged 4.7 yards a carry on 57 for 237 and caught 13 passes for 237 yards. In baseball, he was George Washington's MVP in 1962 and twice won a spot as an outfielder on the all-Southern Conference team.

PERSONAL: Born on August 5, 1940, in New York City. Now lives in Montvale, N. J. Bill is single and is presently working toward his Master's in physical education. He aspires to a career in coaching and teaching. Czech-Swedish-Irish descent.

HENRY SCHICHTLEQuarterback*Rookie*U. of Wichita*21 190 6-2*Wichita, Kan.

PRO: Schichtle was the Giants' No. 6 draft choice and comes to the Giants with impressive credentials. He is a big, strong boy who can throw the ball—and that's what the pro scouts look for in a quarterback.

SCHOOL: There aren't many records at the U. of Wichita that Henry Schichtle doesn't hold. In 1963, his senior year, he was seventh among major college scorers with 68 points, finished ninth in total offense with 1,609 yards on 222 plays and personally was responsible for 142 points. Schichtle set school records by completing 90 passes in 159 attempts. Twelve of these aeriels went for touchdowns, another Wichita record, and Henry set yet another mark by averaging 178.9 yards per game on offense. He also kicked three field goals, one a 42-yarder, and added 17 extra points. His best day came against Louisville. He passed for 335 yards and three TDs, scored two other touchdowns running and kicked five straight conversions. Schichtle's exploits earned him All-Missouri Valley Conference honors and All-American honorable mention. Before going to Wichita, he attended Coffeyville (Kan.) J.C. and the University of Hawaii. He won college letters in baseball and golf.

PERSONAL: Schichtle was born on October 13, 1941, in Tulsa, Okla., but grew up in Coffeyville, Kan. He is single, and he has not yet decided what he wants to do when his football days are over. His boyhood idol was Billy Vessels of Oklahoma. He is of German descent.

DAVID SCHROEDERTackle*Rookie*Wisconsin State*26 260 6-1*Stevens Pt., Wis.

PRO: A big, fast and aggressive lineman, Schroeder was signed as a free agent. He will be given a trial at defensive tackle.

SCHOOL: Schroeder was a two-sport star at Wisconsin State College in Stevens Pt., Wis., winning three letters in football and four in track and field. Dave played both ways at tackle but was particularly outstanding on defense. In track, he set school records in the shot put, discus and javelin.

PERSONAL: Dave was born on May 30, 1938, in Stevens Pt., Wis., and won fame there as a fine all-round high school athlete. He is single, and hopes some day to become a football and track coach on the high school level. He is of German-Norwegian descent.

DICK SKELLYHalfback*Rookie*Florida*23 208 6-0*Jacksonville, Fla.

PRO: Skelly was the Giants' No. 3 draft selection in 1963 but a knee injury in camp spoiled his chances of making the club and he spent the season on the inactive list. He is a hard runner with fine speed. Coach Al Sherman sees him as a tight halfback but he also could fill the role of a receiver.

SCHOOL: Actually, Skelly played only a part of one of his three varsity seasons at Florida. As a sophomore running back, he played in three games, averaging 5.8 yards a carry, and then a knee injury sidelined him. The following season he was ineligible because of probationary action. As a senior, he re-injured his knee and never did get into the lineup. Still, his brief flashes of brilliance were sufficient to impress the pro scouts, who recommended him most highly.

PERSONAL: Born on December 14, 1940, in Jacksonville, Fla., where he still lives with his wife, the former Gloria Brown and their infant son. He was an all-around athletic star at Landon High in Jacksonville and won all-state honors before matriculating at Florida. Is employed as an insurance salesman between seasons.

LOU SLABYLinebacker*Rookie*U. of Pittsburgh*22 235 6-3*Salem, Ohio

PRO: Lou Slaby was drafted on the fifth round by the Giants and, after an impressive showing in training camp, was retained on the inactive squad for the 1963 season. He is given a solid chance of making the grade at linebacker this year.

SCHOOL: Slaby was listed as a fullback with Pittsburgh but actually spent most of his playing time as a cornerman on defense. He was a keen diagnostician and was rated as the most aggressive tackler on the Panther squad. He won three football letters and also played basketball. Lou took part in the 1962 All-American Bowl game and the 1963 Crusader Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born on December 13, 1941, in Salem, Ore., where incidentally, the Giants have trained from time to time. Lou has half a year to go toward a degree in mechanical engineering at Pittsburgh. He is single and spends his leisure hours reading or playing the clarinet. Lou is of Czechoslovakian descent.

STEVE THURLOWHalfback*Rookie*Stanford U.*22 210 6-3*Escondido, Calif.

PRO: Drafted on the second round by the Giants for the 1964 season, Thurlow is a promising first-year man who could help the club at two positions—halfback and quarterback. He's a big, strong runner and he can throw the ball, which makes him a natural for the halfback pass-run option series.

SCHOOL: Thurlow played quarterback for Stanford during the 1962 season but was switched over to halfback in 1963 because of his running ability. The switch was a profitable one for both Thurlow and Stanford. Steve ran the ball 92 times and gained 595 yards, scoring four touchdowns and averaging well over five yards a carry. He also completed eight of 19 passes for 176 yards and two TDs and caught six for 53 yards and one touchdown. Thurlow was sidelined most of his sophomore year with mononucleosis but had a spectacular career nevertheless: 210 rushes for 795 yards, 78 completions in 168 attempts for 844 yards and nine touchdowns, and a total of 46 points scored. Steve won three letters in football, and one each in baseball and rugby.

PERSONAL: Steve was born on April 25, 1942, in Long Beach, Calif., and later became a three-sport star at Escondido, Calif., Union High. He has a brother, Toby, who plays football at USC and another brother, Nick, who is a baseball regular at the U. of California. A bachelor, Steve has a year to go toward his degree and then he hopes to enter either the law profession or international relations. He is of English descent.

ERNIE WHEELWRIGHTFullback*Rookie*Southern Illinois*24 235 6-3*Columbus, O.

PRO: Wheelwright was signed as a free agent by the Giants on the basis of his strong showing in service football for the past few years. Big and fast, Ernie has the ideal specifications for a pro fullback.

SCHOOL: Ernie attended Southern Illinois University for one year (1960), earning a football letter, and then left school to join the U.S. Army Paratroops Corps, in which he served for four years. While playing service ball, Ernie played in the U.S. Army Missile Bowl, the Airborne Bowl and the Mid-State Army Bowl games. He was named MVP in the Missile Bowl and set a record for yards rushing.

PERSONAL: Wheelwright, whose nickname is Tracks, was born on November 28, 1939, in Columbus, O. He is married to the former Peggy Ware and they have a son, Ernie Jr., eight. Ernie has not decided on his future but would like to coach some day.

GARY WOODHalfback*Rookie*Cornell U.*21 188 5-11*Cortland, N. Y.

PRO: The Giants made Wood their No. 8 draft selection for the 1964 season off his brilliant three-year career at Cornell. A great quarterback for the Big Red, Gary is likely to be tried as a defensive halfback by the Maramen. There is also a chance that he might get a trial as a running halfback as well. He is a fine all-around football player with the assets of a Joe Morrison.

SCHOOL: In a sensational 27-game career at Cornell, Wood set five major Ivy League offense records: career total offense (3,457 yards); career rushing (1,867 yards); single season total offense (1,616 yards in 1962); single season rushing (813 yards in 1962), and single game total offense (387 yards vs. Penn in 1962). As a senior, Gary led the nation in kickoff returns (618 yards on 19 returns) and was eighth in rushing with 818 yards. He made the Associated Press All-East team and was a three-time member of the All-Ivy League squad. As a junior, he was third in the country in total offense (1,779 yards) and fourth in rushing (889 yards). He pitched and played the infield for the Big Red baseball team in 1962 but did not play in 1963. Won four letters.

PERSONAL: Gary was born on February 5, 1942, in Taylor, N. Y. He was a star gridder at Cortland High. He majored in hotel administration at Cornell. He is single.
